

Police Need Help Identifying Credit Card Thief / Fraud Suspect

Press release date: 2009-11-02

WEST LINN - On September 19, 2009 a West Linn resident contacted the West Linn Police regarding the fraudulent use of a credit card. The victim reported one of the family's credit cards was missing and being used throughout the Metro area.

The card was cancelled and the bank sent out replacements. Then October 19, 2009 one of the new cards was fraudulently used. The police are trying to learn how the new card was taken and who is using it.

The suspect, pictured above, has been on a buying spree using the stolen cards. The suspect bought electronics, groceries and fuel with the cards prior to them being deactivated by the bank.

The suspect is described as:

White, male adult, pale complexion, salt and pepper hair, 5'8"~5'9" tall, slender, appears middle aged, and tattoos on both forearms.

The West Linn Police ask any one with information on this unknown subject contact Officer Taylor Neil or Detective Nick Amendolara @ 503-655-6214
